Re: United States v. Richard Hall, 21 CR 643

Dear Judge Carter:

With the consent of the government, I write to ask for a temporary modification to Mr. Hall's bail conditions. As a condition of his release, Mr. Hall is subject to home detention. We ask that he be permitted leave from his home this Sunday, May 8, 2022, Mother's Day, so that he can take his mother and partner out for lunch. If this application is granted, Mr. Hall will provide the location and hours of the lunch to his pretrial officer to get his approval in advance.

Since his release on bail in October 2021, Mr. Hall has been fully compliant with pretrial supervision.

Pretrial Supervision has a policy by which it will not consent to any social event for any defendant subject to home detention. Accordingly, it objects. The Government consents.

Respectfully submitted,

The application is GRANTED.
So Ordered.
